

Vision Quest von Andrea M. Leber 2010

Move the Question - Dance your Answer

Exhale your question out and out again
into the fresh North Mountain

See all the answer
all around
It waddles with leisurely curiosity
on the path ahead
Or drops blessed from the sky

Hear the answer
in the rolling songs
of the Aspen trees
The rhythm of tides
drumming the shore

Touch the answer
with hands, feet, heart Earth, Water, Fire, Sky
dancing with mothers, sisters lovers, friends

Taste the answer
in tender kisses
of salty sea and tears Ripening fruit the earth offers Words and music on my tongue both thanks and prays

Embrace your question - And the answer will find you
